SCHEDULE

General

1. Except where his disability has been decided to be attributable to military service, an officer or other rank undergoing treatment in a military mental hospital or a mental ward of a military hospital for a psychotic illness, will, if serving at a home station, cease to be entitled, with effect from the date of admission to the hospital or the day following the completion of three months' absence from duty on account of that disability, whichever is the later, to all pay or additions to pay or allowances or other pecuniary payment (hereinafter referred to as "normal pay and allowances") admissible for a serving officer or soldier. With effect from that date such pay and/or allowances as are admissible under the following paragraphs of this Schedule will be granted to him, or to his family or dependants in respect of him. In the case of an officer or soldier invalided from abroad, the provisions of this paragraph will apply with effect from the date of disembarkation in the United Kingdom or the day following the completion of three months' absence from duty on account of his present disability, whichever is the later.

Officers

2. A married officer as defined in para. 1 of the Schedule to Army Order 171 of 1939 will continue to be so recognized and the wife or other person in respect of whom married allowances are admissible will be granted with effect from the date on which pay at the rates set out in para. 3 below become admissible, and for so long as they are issuable, an allowance or allowances at the rates specified in para. 9 of the Schedule to Army Order 171 of 1939 (as promulgated by Army Order 127 of 1941, and amended by Army Order 195 of 1941) and subject to the conditions governing allowances under that paragraph, so far as they are applicable.

Such an allowance or allowances otherwise issuable under this paragraph will also be issuable in respect of any period for which pay is not admissible under para. 4 below.

3. From the date on which normal pay and allowances cease to be admissible under para. 1 above, and in order that he may have a reasonable amount of pocket money, an officer will be entitled to receive pay at the following daily rates whilst he remains in a military mental hospital or a mental ward of a military hospital, unless the officer commanding that hospital is satisfied that it is against the medical interests of the patient that pay should be issued to him :—

Colonel or above	...	...	...	5	0
Lieutenant-colonel	...	...	...	4	0
Major	...	...	...	3	0
Captain	...	...	...	2	6
Lieutenant	...	...	...	2	0
Second-lieutenant	...	...	...	1	6

These rates will be applicable to officers of all arms.

4. Pay at the rates set out in para. 3 above will not be admissible for any period during which the officer commanding the hospital considers it against the medical interests of the patient that such pay should be issued to him.

5. If an officer becomes entitled to normal pay and allowances for any period during which pay at the rates set out in para. 3 above has been issued, his account will be adjusted accordingly. Any allowances which have been issued under para. 2 above will then be regarded as advances on account of the officer's pay and allowances, and will be recovered accordingly from the amounts which fall to be credited to his account in consequence of this adjustment.

Other Ranks

6. Where, on the last day on which normal pay and allowances are admissible, there is in issue Family Allowance, Ordinary Dependants' Allowance, Special Dependants' Allowance, allotment (qualifying, contributory or voluntary) or compulsory stoppage (and any supplementation thereof from army funds), an allowance, equal to the amount of the allowance, allotment or stoppage which would be admissible under the appropriate regulations (including any variation which would have

A.O. 9 fallen to be made had normal pay and allowances continued in issue) will be granted to the person to whom such an allowance, allotment or stoppage would have been payable at the time had normal pay and allowances been admissible. This allowance will be continued for so long as pay under para. 7 below is admissible.

Such an allowance or allowances otherwise issuable under this paragraph will also be issuable in respect of any period for which pay is not admissible under para. 8 below.

7. From the date on which normal pay and allowances cease to be admissible under para. 1 above, and in order that he may have a reasonable amount of pocket money, an other rank will be entitled to receive pay at the following daily rates, whilst he remains in a military mental hospital or a mental ward of a military hospital, unless the officer commanding that hospital is satisfied that it is against the medical interests of the patient that pay should be issued to him :—

	s.	d.
Warrant officer	1	6

Corporal, lance-corporal or private... ..	1	0
Boy	0	3

provided always that where the net rate of pay previously issuable to him, after deduction of allotment or stoppage, was less than the amount specified above, only the lower amount shall be issuable.

These rates will be applicable to all arms.

8. Pay at the rates set out in para. 7 above will not be admissible for any period during which the officer commanding the hospital considers it against the medical interests of the patient that such pay should be issued to him.

9. In the event of a soldier becoming entitled to normal pay and allowances for any period during which pay at the rates set out in para. 7 above has been issued, his account will be adjusted accordingly. Allowances issued under para. 6 above will then be regarded as advances and will be recovered accordingly from any amounts to which the persons who received such allowances became entitled consequent upon this adjustment.

Attributable Cases

10. Unless the paymasters concerned have been notified that the disability from which an officer or soldier is suffering has been accepted by the War Office as attributable to military service, all officers or soldiers undergoing treatment in a military mental hospital or a mental ward of a military hospital for psychotic illness will be dealt with in accordance with the above provisions, the necessary adjustment being made subsequently in any case where the paymaster is notified that the disability has been decided to be attributable to military service.

Personnel leaving Hospital

11. If an officer or other rank entitled to pay under para. 3 or 7 above leaves the military hospital in which he is a patient in order to return to military duty, whether immediately or after a period of leave or furlough granted by the competent authority, he will cease to be subject to the provisions contained in this Schedule from the date he leaves the military hospital and will become eligible for pay and allowances under the normal regulations.

12. If an officer or other rank entitled to pay under para. 3 or 7 above leaves the military hospital in which he is a patient at the request of his relatives, or for any other reason not covered by para. 11 above, issue of pay will cease with effect from the date he leaves the hospital and any allowances admissible under para. 2 or 6 above will cease, in the case of an officer, with effect from the date he leaves the hospital, and in the case of an other rank, from the last day of the allowance week in which he leaves the hospital.

13. An other rank in receipt of pay under para. 7 above will not be eligible for any bonus in lieu of furlough on discharge from the Army.

Hospital charges

14. The charges prescribed in Regulations for the Allowances of the Army, 1938, para. 63, will not be recovered from officers for any period during which pay at the rates set out in para. 3 above is issuable.

A.O. 9 Army Council's instructions on the foregoing Warrant

1. The intention of the Warrant is to make available extended treatment in a military mental hospital or mental ward of a military hospital, to certain officers and other ranks who, by the nature of their mental disabilities, might under the existing regulations have had to be retired or discharged from the Army on account of disability at an earlier date than is now contemplated.

2. Arrangements will be made for special medical treatment to be continued; and the financial conditions set out in the Schedule to the Warrant ensure that during such period of continued treatment the officer or soldier will have sufficient "pocket money" to meet his immediate needs, and that—

- (a) the family and dependants of an officer who have hitherto been recognized for allowances from army funds will receive an amount equal to the allowance which would have been issuable had normal pay and allowances continued in issue, plus a sum equal to two sevenths of normal pay at the rate last issuable to the officer;
- (b) the family and dependants of an other rank who have hitherto been recognized for family and dependants' allowances from army funds will continue to receive these allowances for so long as and at such rates as would have been issuable had normal pay and allowances continued at the rate last issuable. In addition they will continue, so long as the family circumstances justify it, to receive the qualifying allotment for family allowance and any voluntary allotment or compulsory stoppage issuable.

3. Where an officer is admitted to a military mental hospital or a mental ward of a military hospital, the officer commanding that hospital will immediately notify The Under-Secretary of State, The War Office, of the date of the officer's admission to the hospital and, in the case of an officer serving at home, the date of his first absence from duty on account of his present disability, and, in the case of an officer invalided home from abroad, the dates of his disembarkation and of his first absence from duty on account of his present disability.

4. Where an other rank is admitted to a military mental hospital or a mental ward of a military hospital the officer commanding that hospital will immediately notify the regimental paymaster concerned of the date of the other rank's admission to hospital, and, in the case of an other rank serving at home, the date of his first absence from duty on account of his present disability, and, in the case of an other rank invalided home from abroad, the dates of his disembarkation and of his first absence from duty on account of his present disability. He will also publish the casualty in Part II Orders.

5. The army agents, O. i/c. Army Pay Office (Officers' Accounts), Manchester, and the officer commanding the hospital concerned, will be notified by the War Office in the case of an officer—

- (a) of the date on which normal pay and allowances cease to be admissible; and
- (b) of the date from which normal pay and allowances become issuable under para. 5 of the above Schedule whilst the officer is in hospital.

6. The allowances admissible under para. 2 of the above Schedule will be issued to the officer's wife or guardian of his children, as the case may be, monthly in arrear by the O. i/c. Army Pay Office (Officers' Accounts), Manchester.

7. The pay due to officers and other ranks under paras. 3 and 7 of the above Schedule will be issued by the officer commanding the hospital, and charged in his imprest account supported by a statement showing the name and address of the hospital, account period, number, name, rank and regiment of recipient, date of payment, number of days, rate of pay and amount issued. Separate statements will be prepared for other ranks of each regiment or corps. The paymaster receiving the imprest account will charge the pay issued to the appropriate pay vote and forward the pay statements of officers to the O. i/c. Army Pay Office (Officers' Accounts), Manchester, who will furnish the respective army agents with details of the pay issued in hospital to any officers who were in army agents' payment when admitted to hospital. The pay statements of other ranks will be forwarded to the appropriate fixed centre paymaster.

A.O. 9

The pay issued in hospital will be noted on the A.F. O 1856 or A.F. N 1453 in respect of officers and, on A.F. N 3085 in respect of other ranks, for adjustment as necessary under paras. 5 and 9 of the above Schedule.

8. With reference to para. 10 of the above Schedule, officers or other ranks whose disabilities are decided to be attributable to military service will be dealt with under the normal regulations (including those relating to the recovery of hospital charges) for officers and soldiers absent from duty owing to sickness.

9. With reference to para. 13 of the above Schedule, soldiers in receipt of pay under para. 7 of the Schedule will not in any circumstances be granted furlough on discharge from the Army. - (e) The following conditions will govern the grant of increments of pay dependent on length of service and proficiency pay whilst a soldier is a prisoner of war:—

Engineers
311

(i) Promotion dependent on length of service.

A soldier eligible for promotion under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Articles 802 to 827 and 956 to 964, will continue, whilst a prisoner of war, to be granted promotion under the conditions laid down in those Articles, but the special recommendation required by Article 797 will be waived. Any promotion made under this authority will be reviewed at the end of a period of three months from the date on which the soldier arrives in British territory after repatriation or escape, and if the soldier then fails to fulfil the qualifications appropriate to his new rank or appointment, including the special recommendation under Article 797, he will revert, with effect from the day following the completion of the three months' period referred to, to the substantive rank held by him at the time of capture, or if higher, to the highest rank or appointment for which he is qualified and specially recommended under Article 797.

(ii) Long Service and Good Conduct.

Where a soldier completes a period of eight or 13 years' reckonable colour service whilst a prisoner of war, he will not be considered for the appropriate award of long service and good conduct pay under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Article 1019 so long as he remains a prisoner. Provided that his eligibility for the award is confirmed not later than the end of three months from the date of his arrival in British territory on repatriation or escape, he will be granted the appropriate increment with retrospective effect to the date on which he completed the necessary period of service.

(iii) For the purpose of (i) and (ii) above A.O. 32

(iv) Military Proficiency Pay.

A soldier who became a prisoner of war before 17th July, 1940, and who was in receipt of military proficiency pay on 2nd March, 1940, or on the date of completing six months' current war service, may be allowed to continue in receipt of this emolument if action to award war-time proficiency pay in replacement was not initiated before the date of capture.

2. Add at end :—

Army Council's instructions

WAR TIME PROFICIENCY PAY

When a soldier becomes a prisoner of war before the completion of seven months' war service he may be granted war time proficiency pay as from the date on which he completes six months' war service without being certified by the C.O. in accordance with A.C.I. 756 of 1940, para. 10 (b), on the assumption that the C.O. has had no opportunity to consider the man's eligibility and publish the award.

A soldier who has completed seven months' war service before being captured will not be granted war time proficiency pay without the certificate of the C.O. required by A.C.I. 1020 of 1941, para. 5.

OUR WILL AND PLEASURE IS that the instructions contained in the Schedule attached to this Our Warrant shall be substituted for those contained in the Schedules attached to Our Warrants dated 9th September, 1939* and 16th May, 1941† and all amendments thereto, which are hereby cancelled.

Given at Our Court at St. James's this

SCHEDULE

Allowances for Married Officers

(1) These instructions are operative with effect from 11th September, 1939, as regards Part I ; with effect from 27th August, 1939, as regards Part II, subject to any exceptions and limitations provided therein, and until it is decided to provide otherwise.

* Army Order 171 of 1939.

† Army Order 68 of 1941.

(2) Where the provisions of these instructions are at variance with the provisions of King's Regulations, Allowance Regulations, Territorial Army Regulations, Supplementary Reserve Regulations, or any other regulations, these instructions will over-ride the provisions of such regulations.

(3) At stations where colonial allowance is issuable officers in Category C (see para. 3 of Part I) will be eligible to receive the allowance at the rates and under the conditions laid down in Allowance Regulations for officers eligible for married rates of lodging allowance.

(4) Officers in Category C (see para. 3 of Part I) will be regarded for the purposes of rations and ration allowances as entitled personnel under the conditions laid down in Army Order 65 of 1937.

PART I

General instructions for the issue of allowances to officers in respect of their families, and standard rates of family lodging allowance

I. Definitions.

For the purpose of these instructions, an officer will be regarded as a married officer (subject to the over-riding conditions below) only if :—

- (i) he is married and provides financially for the maintenance of his wife ; or
- (ii) being a widower or divorced or a married officer who does not provide financially for the maintenance of his wife, he has a child or children for whose maintenance he provides financially.

When an officer is separated from his family by the exigencies of the service he will be regarded as providing financially for their maintenance only if his current expenditure on such provision is at least equal to the family lodging allowance in issue to him.

The expression "a child or children" will be held to cover :—

- (a) the officer's unmarried daughters, step-daughters, or daughters adopted under the provisions of the Adoption of Children Act, 1926, the Adoption of Children Act

(Northern Ireland), 1929, or the Adoption of Children (Scotland) Act, 1930, dependent on him and normally residing with him or at school; and A.O. 33
continued

- (b) his sons, step-sons, or sons adopted under the provisions of the Acts referred to above, under 18 years of age. (Cases where sons, step-sons or adopted sons over 18 years of age suffer from mental or bodily infirmity may be submitted for special consideration.)

It will not include :—

- (i) children adopted, under the provisions of the Acts referred to above or otherwise, by a widower or a divorced officer without other children as defined above ;
- (ii) children of a divorced officer, unless the officer is their legal custodian, even though he may contribute to their maintenance; and
- (iii) children for whose maintenance the officer does not provide financially.

In the interpretation of these instructions, references to an officer's family will be held to cover only his wife (if he provides financially for her maintenance) and such children as are recognized by the definitions above.

2. Exceptions and limitations.

These instructions do not apply to officers on the Indian or Burma establishment regarding whom separate instructions have been issued.

These instructions will apply only to officers who are remunerated on a basis of ordinary full pay and allowances. They will not apply to an officer who, by reason of receipt of an inclusive rate of pay or otherwise, is not entitled to the free provision of accommodation at the public expense, nor to an officer who is not in receipt of army rates of pay as laid down in the Pay Warrant.

Unless it is otherwise specifically provided, the allowances referred to in these instructions will be issuable to an officer only while he is in receipt of full pay.

A.O. 33 During any period in which the family or part of 1942 the family of an officer is provided with passage at the continued public expense he will not qualify to receive allowances under these instructions in respect of his family or those members of his family for whom passage is provided.

The entitlement for which provision is made in these instructions will be in lieu of, and not additional to, any entitlement in respect of the accommodation of an officer and/or his family for which provision is made in existing regulations.

The allowances for married officers in Categories B and C of para. 3 below are introduced primarily to provide for the families of officers who are called out for service or who are granted temporary commissions during the present war. Although these allowances are extended to regular officers they are not introduced as a permanent feature of the system of army allowances and are therefore liable to be withdrawn in due course.

3. Rates of family lodging allowance.

Subject to any exceptions stated in these instructions, a family lodging allowance will be issuable to married officers to whose families quarters are not allotted, at the following daily rates unless in any particular case special rates shall be notified:—

CATEGORY A

Officers commissioned before 1st January, 1942, who are 30 years of age or over and who have not elected to come into Category C (see note below).

Classes 5 and 6	...	...	9	6†

Class 9	...	...	6	0

†. Where this rate is in excess of the total of the current daily married rates of lodging and fuel and light allowances and furniture allowance for Class 5 or Class 6 at a home station, these allowances will be issuable in lieu thereof.

CATEGORY B

Officers commissioned before 1st January, 1942, who are less than 30 years of age and who have not elected to come into Category C (see note below).

For officers of Categories B and C, where the family* consists of a child or children, but no wife, the total allowance issuable is assessed as if there were a wife.

* See definition in para. 1.

Note.—Officers commissioned before 1st January, 1942, might, if they so desired, elect to come into Category C with effect from 1st September, 1941, the date of commission, or the date of marriage, whichever was the latest. Unless specific authority were given by the Army Council to the contrary the election had to be made before 1st January, 1942, and officers who so elected were not and will not be permitted subsequently to revert to Categories A and B.

4. (a) Subject to the exceptions stated at (c) below, the classification of an officer in Category A for the purpose of determining the rate of issue of family lodging allowance or the married rates of lodging and fuel and light allowances, will be determined by the class appropriate to his substantive, war substantive, or paid temporary rank (whichever is the highest), and not by reference to the appointment which he holds; provided that he shall not draw the allowances of a rank higher than that for which he receives pay.

(b) With effect from 1st September, 1939, grant of acting rank under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Article 178, will not confer entitlement to the rate of family lodging allowance or to the married rates of lodging and fuel and light allowances of the acting rank.

(c) The conditions at (a) and (b) above will be subject to the following modifications and exceptions :—

- (i) In the case of officers in Category A holding the following appointments, the rate of family lodging allowance or the married rates of lodging and fuel and light allowances issuable will be determined by the classification of the appointment held :—

G.O.C.-in-C. 1st Class (= Class 1).

G.O.C.-in-C. 2nd Class (= Class 2).

Assistant director and deputy assistant director at the War Office, when held by an officer of the R.A.O.C. (= Classes 5 and 7 respectively).

- (ii) On the promotion to acting rank of an officer in Category A whose classification for the allowances referred to at (a) above was, immediately before the promotion, determined by a temporary rank which is relinquished on promotion, his classification for these allowances will continue to be determined by the temporary rank (if this is higher than his substantive or war substantive rank), until the acting rank is confirmed into temporary rank.

An officer who is in receipt of full pay under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Article 218, while unemployed will, however, when he is entitled to allowances, receive them at the rates appropriate to the rank for which pay is issuable; on his subsequent re-employment, the rate issuable will be determined by the rules at (a) and (b) above, without reference to the rate which was admissible when he was previously employed.

A.O.'33

5. Separation from family by the exigencies of the service.

If no member of an officer's family is residing with him at his station, he will be regarded as separated from his family owing to the exigencies of the service, except that if the family of a regular officer in Category A serving at a home station on 11th September, 1939, was already separated from him otherwise than by one of the causes referred to in Allowance Regulations, 1938, paras. 120 and 124, separation will not be regarded as due to the exigencies of the service, so long as the officer remains at that particular station.

An officer who is separated from the whole of his family owing to their being evacuated either privately or under a Government evacuation scheme, from an area scheduled as an evacuation area under the Government evacuation scheme, to a neutral or reception area may with effect from 14th October, 1940, be regarded as separated by the exigencies of the service.

An officer who is separated from his family owing to the exigencies of the service will be entitled to family lodging allowance (if quarters are not allotted to his family) and, in addition, to accommodation as though he were unmarried. Where, in such a case, the circumstances are such that, if the officer were unmarried, an allowance or allowances would be issuable in lieu of accommodation, he will receive such allowance or allowances.

Separation of an officer from his family will be held to exist only if he is separated from all the members of his family.

If accommodation (whether in tents, huts, billets, or quarters) separate from that occupied by his family is compulsorily allotted to an officer, he will be regarded as separated from his family owing to the exigencies of the service if the family resides elsewhere at the same station.

A.O. 33 Attention is drawn to the fact that officers 1942 serving abroad will, in circumstances in which they continued have hitherto been regarded as "voluntarily separated" from their families (see King's Regulations, 1940, para. 1381), be regarded as separated from their families owing to the exigencies of the service.

6. Officers not separated from families owing to the exigencies of the service.

(a) A married officer in Category A who is not separated from his family owing to the exigencies of the service (see para. 5) will be liable to allotment of married officers' quarters under ordinary peace procedure if he was, immediately before 11th September, 1939, serving under conditions involving liability to such allotment of married quarters, or if, in any other case, the Army Council deem it advisable that married quarters should be allotted.

A married officer in Category A to whom married quarters are not allotted and whose family is not separated from him owing to the exigencies of the service (see para. 5) will receive, instead of family lodging allowance, the married rates of lodging allowance and furniture allowance as laid down in Allowance Regulations, together with the married rate of fuel and light allowance laid down in Army Orders, or, at a station abroad, in the local orders of the command, from time to time, unless in any particular cases special rates of lodging allowance and fuel and light allowance shall be notified. He will not, however, be entitled to free provision of accommodation fuel and light for himself or any allowance in respect thereof.

(b) A married officer in Category B whose family is not separated from him owing to the exigencies of the service (see para. 5) will be entitled to the issue of the single rates of lodging and fuel and light allowances (or such other allowance/s in lieu thereof as may be authorized by the Army Council in special cases) only if the circumstances are such that these allowances would have been issuable if he were unmarried, except that

- (i) he will not be disqualified from receiving these allowances because, if unmarried, he could have been accommodated in a billet,

- (ii) the total issue (i.e., family lodging allowance plus single rates of lodging and fuel and light allowances or authorized allowance/s in lieu thereof) will be limited to an amount not exceeding that which would be issuable to an officer of the same rank in Category A and,

A.O. 33

- (iii) the single rates of lodging and fuel and light allowances or allowance/s in lieu thereof will not be issuable if he occupies married quarters.

(c) An officer in Category C who resides by permission with his family will receive in addition to the family lodging allowance issuable under para. 3 a further allowance of 1s. a day.

7. Occupation of quarters by non-entitled officers.

(a) When an officer in Category A is entitled to the married rates of lodging and fuel and light allowances and furniture allowance under para. 6 (a) of these instructions and wishes to occupy a single quarter in barracks during such periods as it is not required by an entitled officer, he may be permitted to do so, subject to his paying a rent equal to the rate of lodging allowance of the officer to whom the quarter would normally be allotted.

(b) In the case of an officer in Categories B or C married officers' quarters may be occupied by:—

- (i) the officer and his family if they are not separated; or
- (ii) the family of the officer if it is separated from him, only if, and for so long as, the quarters are not required for an officer in Category A, for the family of such an officer, or for any military purpose.

A married officer in Category B will, in case (i), be entitled to free issues of fuel and light only on the scales appropriate to the type of single officer's quarters normally allotted to an officer of the occupant's rank but, in case (ii), free issues of fuel and light will not be admissible for the quarters occupied by the family.

A married officer in Category C will in cases (i) or (ii) receive free issues of fuel and light at the scales laid down for the type of quarter occupied or, if such issues in kind are impracticable, fuel and light allowances assessed in accordance with the provisions of Allowance Regulations, 1938, paras. 174 and 176. He will in either case also be eligible to receive furniture allowance.

8. Change of station, etc.

The grant of indemnity in respect of rent liability on change of station, etc., will continue to be subject to the conditions laid down in Allowance Regulations, 1938, paras. 108 and 139, as modified by Army Order 113 of 1941.

In the case of an officer in Category B, indemnity will be payable only if he was in receipt of the single rate of lodging allowance, and, in such a case, the indemnity will be assessed by reference to the single rate of lodging allowance only.

In the case of an officer in Category C the indemnity will be assessed within a maximum of £8 os. od.

9. Continued occupation of lodgings by family after separation.

A married officer, in Category A, in receipt of the married rates of lodging, fuel and light allowances and furniture allowance, or a married officer in Category C in receipt of the allowance of 1s. od. a day laid down in para. 6 (c) who :—

- (i) on his leaving the station at which the allowances were drawn, becomes separated from his family owing to the exigencies of the service (see para. 5), or
- (ii) is admitted to hospital may (if in case (i) he certifies that no claim in respect of the lodgings which he has vacated will be made under Allowance Regulations, 1938, para. 108) continue to receive these allowances, for such period (not exceeding 91 days, except in the special cases in which Allowance Regulations, 1938, para. 119 (b), provides that this period may be exceeded) as the family remains in the lodgings previously occupied with the officer. On the expiration of this period, family lodging allowance only will be admissible in respect of his family. Where an officer, in case (i), retains his entitlement to a claim under Allowance Regulations, 1938, para. 108, family lodging allowance only will be admissible in respect of the family from the date of separation.

An officer who continues to receive the married rates of lodging and fuel and light allowances and furniture allowance will not receive family lodging allowance in addition. A.O. 33

10. Retention of hired accommodation by certain officers after separation.

A married officer in Category A who was, on 1st September, 1939, in receipt of the married rate of lodging, fuel and light allowances and furniture allowance may, on his first becoming separated from his family after that date by reason of a change of station, continue, subject to the conditions stated below, to receive these allowances, instead of family lodging allowance, for a period not exceeding one year from the date of separation, if, and only for so long as, he certifies :—

- (i) that he retains and pays for and does not sub-let lodgings which he occupied with his family before his move :
- (ii) that the lodgings were hired and were not owned by him and/or a member of his family :
- (iii) that no claim under Allowance Regulations, 1938, para. 108, will be made in respect of the lodgings :

and, in addition, when he claims continuance of the allowances beyond 91 days from the date of his move :—

- (iv) that it has not been possible to obtain release from rent liability in respect of the lodgings or to sublet them at a rent not less than his outgoings in respect of them.

An officer claiming entitlement to allowances under this paragraph will render the certificates required by (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) above under such arrangements as the G.O.C. may direct. Certificates under (i) and (iv) will be required to be rendered monthly in support of continuance of issue.

Any entitlement under this paragraph will be in lieu of, and not additional to, any entitlement which the officer might otherwise possess under para. 9 of these instructions. In any case, however, where there is no entitlement under this paragraph, any entitlement under para. 9 of these instructions will not be prejudiced thereby :

A.O. 33 Where an officer retains his entitlement to a 1942 claim under Allowance Regulations, 1938, para. 108, continued family lodging allowance only will be admissible in respect of the family from the date of separation.

11. Death of Officer.

(a) (i) In the event of the death of an officer who has not first been reported to be missing,* any allowance or allowances which were issuable to him in respect of his family under the provisions of these instructions including the allowance laid down in para. 6 (c) will continue to be admissible (subject to such reduction as may arise under (d) below) until expiry of a period of 91 days from the date on which notification of his death is sent to his relatives, or, in a case where such notification is not considered to be necessary, for a period of 91 days from the date of his death, subject, however, to the provisions of para. 12 regarding earlier termination of the allowance or allowances. Except as provided in (ii) below, the rate will be that issuable immediately before the officer's death.

(ii) If a family which was occupying married quarters vacates them during the period referred to in (i) above, family lodging allowance, instead of the allowances previously in issue will be admissible for the remainder of the period. If married rates of colonial or dominion allowance were in issue at the date of death the difference between married and single rates will be continued in addition while the family remains at the station for so long as family lodging allowance is in issue.

(b) During the period of admissibility of an allowance or allowances under (a) above, a supplementary allowance will be admissible (subject to such reduction as may arise under (d) below), at a weekly rate equal to two days' pay at the rate last issuable to the officer, the rate of pay last issuable being reckoned as provided in (c) below.

(c) (i) For the purpose of (b) above, the rate of pay last issuable to the officer will be regimental pay plus any corps pay, engineer pay, signal pay and qualification pay (but not staff pay, command pay or any other form of additional pay) which was last issuable. In a case where an officer would have been in receipt of corps, engineer, signal or qualification pay but for the fact that he was in receipt of staff pay, such corps, engineer, signal or qualification pay will be assumed, for this purpose, to have been issuable. A.O. 33

* Army Council's note:—The rates and conditions of issue of allowances in respect of the families of officers who have been reported to be missing are laid down in Army Order 71 of 1940.

(ii) In the case of a retired officer who was re-employed or recalled to service, regimental pay, for the purpose of (i) above, will include, in addition to the regimental and other pay admissible thereunder, any addition to which the officer was entitled under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Article 496, sub-para. (b) or (e), less any deduction for which he was liable under sub-para. (c) of that Article. It will exclude any pension or retired pay which remained in issue to him in accordance with sub-para. (d), (e) and (f) of the Article.

(iii) If the officer had elected to be paid under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Article 496, sub-para. (g) and was in fact so paid at the date of his death, the rate of pay last issuable will, for the purpose of (b) above, be reckoned to be the rate of pay last actually issuable under the provisions of Article 496, sub-para. (g), excluding, in cases governed by sub-para. (h) of that Article, any disability element of retired pay or pension.

(d) The amount of any allowances due, under (a) to (c) above, in respect of the period from the day following the date of an officer's death to the day preceding the date on which notification of his death is sent to his relatives, will be abated by the amount of any pay and/or allowances over-issued to his account for any period after the date of his death. Allowances due under (a) to (c) above, from the date on which notification of his death is sent to his relatives will not however be subject to any abatement in respect of pay and/or allowances over-issued to the officer's account after the date of his death.

(e) In the case of an officer who provided financially for the maintenance of his wife, allowances admissible under (a) to (d) above will be payable to his widow, except as provided in para. 12 (c). In the case of an officer who was a widower or divorced or who did not provide financially for the maintenance of his wife, allowances will be payable to such person or persons as he may have nominated (in such manner as may be prescribed by the Army Council) for this purpose, or, if he has not so nominated a person or persons to receive the allowances, to such person or persons as the Army Council may decide.

12. Cessation of allowances issuable after death of officer.

Allowances issuable under para. 11 will cease before the expiry of the period of entitlement specified therein, in the following circumstances:—

- (a) If, while the allowances are in issue to an officer's widow, she re-marries, they will not be admissible after the end of the calendar month in which the re-marriage occurs, nor will they then continue to be issuable in respect of any child or children.
- (b) When the allowances are payable to a nominee other than the officer's widow:—
 - (i) They will not be admissible after the end of the calendar month in which a daughter becomes married, if there is no son or other unmarried daughter who is qualified to be regarded as a member of the officer's family. They will not cease as the result of the marriage of the officer's nominee, unless the nominee is a daughter whose marriage involves cessation of the allowances as provided above.
 - (ii) The admissibility and rate of the allowances will not be affected by the marriage of a daughter when there is any other child qualified to be regarded as a member of the officer's family.
- (c) If the allowances are payable to an officer's widow, they will cease to be admissible after the end of the calendar month in which her death occurs, unless there is a child qualified to be regarded as a member of the officer's family. If there is a child so qualified, the allowances will remain in issue for the unexpired portion of the period of admissibility specified in para. 11, but they will be issued to such person or persons as the Army Council may decide.

- (d) When the allowances are payable to a nominee other than the officer's widow :— A.O. 33

- (i) Unless there is another child qualified to be regarded as a member of the officer's family, they will cease to be admissible after the end of the calendar month in which the death of a child occurs. If there is another child so qualified, the allowances will remain in issue for the unexpired portion of the period of admissibility specified in para. 11. The allowances will not cease to be admissible as the result of the death of the nominee unless the nominee is a child whose death involves cessation of the allowances as provided above. continued.
- (ii) When there is any other child qualified to be regarded as a member of the officer's family, the rate of the allowances will not be affected by the death of a child.

Unless specially authorized by the Army Council allowances issuable under para. 11 will not be admissible after expiry of 91 days from the date (as specified in para. 11 (a) (i)) from which the allowances became admissible.

13. Absence of officer on temporary duty.

When a married officer serving at a station where he is not separated from his family owing to the exigencies of the service (see para. 5) is temporarily ordered away from that station (referred to below as his "permanent station") on duty likely to terminate within six months, his entitlement to accommodation, or allowances in lieu, of himself and his family will be as follows :—

- (a) When a married quarter is allotted or occupied at his permanent station, he will be entitled to be accommodated at his temporary station as if he were unmarried. For an officer in Category B there will be no entitlement to fuel and light for quarters retained by his family at his permanent station.

continued

(b) When a married quarter is not allotted or occupied at his permanent station and

- (i) when he retains and does not sub-let the lodgings at his permanent station occupied when on duty there his entitlement to allowances will be as follows :—

If in Category A

The married rates of lodging and fuel and light allowances and furniture allowance if he is entitled to receive these allowances under para. 6 (a).

If in Category B

Family lodging allowance, also the single rate of lodging allowance (but not fuel and light allowance) if this was in issue when he was at his permanent station, for so long as it would have continued to be admissible had he not left that station provided that the total issue (i.e., family lodging allowance plus the single rate of lodging allowance) will be limited to an amount not exceeding that which would be issuable if he were an officer in Category A.

If in Category C

Family lodging allowance only and not the rs. od. a day laid down in para. 6 (c).

In addition, an officer in Category A, B or C will be entitled to be accommodated at his temporary station as if he were unmarried.

- (ii) When he relinquishes or sub-lets the lodgings at his permanent station occupied while on duty there but lodges separately from his family during his temporary duty, he will draw the appropriate rate of family lodging allowance and, in addition, will be entitled to be accommodated at his temporary station as if he were unmarried.

- (iii) When he relinquishes or sub-lets the lodgings at his permanent station occupied while on duty there and lodges with his family during his temporary duty, he will have no entitlement in respect of his permanent station, and allowances at his temporary station will be adjusted as provided in para. 6.

In cases (a) and (b) (i) and (ii) above, if the circumstances at his temporary station are such that, if he were unmarried, the single rates of lodging, fuel and light allowances (or such other allowance/s in lieu thereof as may be authorized by the Army Council in special cases), would be issuable, he will receive these, subject, in cases (a) and (b) (i), to the condition that he certifies that he is not continuing to reside in the quarters or lodgings retained at his permanent station.

14. Absence from duty on leave or owing to sickness.

(a) During an officer's absence on leave (ordinary or sick) from a station, admissibility or otherwise of family lodging allowance or the married rates of lodging and fuel and light allowances and furniture allowance, as the case may be, will be determined, for so long as the officer is in receipt of full pay, as though he were still at duty, subject to the provisions at (b) below as regards the rate at which lodging and fuel and light allowances are to be issued, and to the following exceptions :—

- (i) An officer in Category A who is entitled under para. 6 (a) to the married rates of lodging and fuel and light allowances and furniture allowance when not separated from his family, will, if and when he rejoins his family during sick leave, receive these allowances in lieu of family lodging allowance.
- (ii) An officer in Category C will, if and when he rejoins his family during sick leave, receive the 1s. od. a day laid down in para. 6 (c).

A.O. 33 In a case under (i) or (ii) above the issue of single 1942 rates of lodging and fuel and light allowances, if continued; these were already in issue, will be discontinued.

- (b) (i) When a married officer, on ordinary leave from and remaining on the strength of a command abroad, is entitled under (a) above to receive the married rates of lodging, fuel and light allowances, these allowances will be issued at the rates for his station abroad, if, and only for so long as, he certifies that he retains and pays for and does not sub-let the lodgings occupied by him with his family when he was at duty. When he does not so certify, the allowances, if otherwise admissible, will be at the home rates, except that for any period of leave the total of the lodging, fuel and light allowances issuable to the officer will not exceed the total of the lodging, fuel and light allowances for which he would be eligible if he were at duty.
- (ii) When a married officer in Category A is invalided home from a station abroad where he has been living with his family (see Allowance Regulations, 1938, para. 395 (c)) and passage home is provided also for his family on the recommendation of a medical board (see Allowance Regulations, 1938, para. 415 (e)), he will, on embarkation, cease to be entitled to the rates of lodging, fuel and light allowances for the station abroad and will, on disembarkation, become entitled to the home rates; unless he is admitted to hospital or given a grant covering accommodation, in which case family lodging allowance, and not the married rates of lodging, fuel and light allowances, is issuable in accordance with para. 9. Expenses in respect of vacation of lodgings at the station abroad may be dealt with under Allowance Regulations, 1938, para. 108.
- (iii) When a married officer in Category A is on sick leave from duty at a station abroad on whose strength he remains, and his case is not governed by sub-para. (b) (ii) above, the rate at which the married rates of lodging, fuel and light allowances (if these are admissible under (a) above), are to be issued, will be determined in the same way as is provided in sub-para. (b) (i) above. A.O. 33

(c) The admissibility of single rates of lodging, fuel and light allowances during an officer's absence from duty on leave or owing to sickness will, unless and until instructions to the contrary are issued, continue to be subject to the rules which apply in peace. Where these allowances are issuable to a married officer in Category B who is not separated from his family for a reason stated in para. 5 the total issue will be limited as provided in para. 6 (b) (i) of these instructions.

(d) In the case of an officer in Category B who is in occupation of married quarters under para. 7 (b) (i), free issues of fuel and light for the quarters will continue only if they would be admissible under the rules governing issues to an unmarried officer.

15. Allotment of unfurnished married quarters to an officer.

The issue of furniture allowance to officers in Categories A or C who are or whose families are, allotted, or in occupation of married quarters will be at the rate and under the conditions laid down in Allowance Regulations, except that continuance during absence on leave, sickness, etc., will be subject generally to the conditions specified in these instructions.

16. Mode of issue.

In the absence of specific instructions by the Army Council to the contrary, issue of any allowances due in accordance with these instructions will be made to the officer (except in the case of allowances due in accordance with para. 11) and not to his family, under such arrangements as may be specified by the Army Council.

Special rates and conditions of issue of family lodging allowance to officers whose families are at certain stations abroad.

1. Definitions.—For the purpose of these instructions, the expression “standard rates” refers to the rates of family lodging allowance admissible under the provisions of para. 3 of Part I of the Schedule to this Army Order, to officers in Categories A and C, and the expression “special rates” to the rates of family lodging allowance in para. 2 below.

The special rates have been assessed to bear generally a more suitable relationship to the local costs of accommodation than do the standard rates.

The conditions of admissibility of the special rates will generally be the same as those in Part I of the Schedule to this Army Order, governing issues of the standard rates but will be subject to the following special conditions of issue.

2. Special rates of family lodging allowance.

3. Exceptions and limitations.

(1) The special rates of family lodging allowance under (a) and (b) of para. 2 above are not applicable to :—

(a) Officers whose families have been left in India or Burma.

(b) Officers who have been, or may be, commissioned for service with certain locally raised units or otherwise on conditions which provide for the issue of family lodging allowance at rates differing from those ordinarily issuable.

(2) The special rates of family lodging allowance are not applicable to officers in Category B. These officers will receive the rates of family lodging allowance laid down in para. 3 of Part I of the Schedule to this Army Order.

(3) The special rates of family lodging allowance under (b) of para. 2 above will be issuable only in respect of families or members of families residing at the station. If a member or members are residing elsewhere the total rate of family lodging allowance

A.O. 33 will be assessed on the situation of individual 1942 members of the family, but if a child or children
 will be regarded for purposes of the allowance as the elder or eldest child or children.

(4) (a) Officers whose families proceeded after 1st November, 1939, without authority and contrary to War Office instructions governing movements of families, to overseas stations other than India, Ceylon, Bermuda, Trinidad, Burma, Mauritius, Jamaica or St. Helena or who proceeded from India to Egypt after 8th March, 1940, will receive the standard rates, or the special rate for the area to which the family proceeded, or may subsequently proceed, whichever is the lower. If they are subsequently evacuated under War Office instructions to an area to which special rates apply, the standard rate, or the special rates applicable to the reception area, whichever is the lower, will be admissible.

(b) Officers whose families proceeded after 1st November, 1939, to Ceylon, Bermuda, Mauritius, or Jamaica will receive the special rates from a date not earlier than 21st August, 1940.

4. Conditions of admissibility of special rates.

Except (a) as provided in para. 3 above, and (b) in cases where the family of an officer in Category A remain in occupation of lodgings after separation (in which case the provisions of para. 9 of Part I of the Schedule to this Army Order apply) the special rates appropriate to an area mentioned in para. 2 above will be admissible in lieu of the standard rates when the officer becomes separated from his family by reason of a duty move, only for so long as the family remains in the area. In the event of a move of the family under the instructions of the War Office, as part of an evacuation scheme, the rates of family lodging allowance applicable to the reception area to which the family is evacuated (whether the standard or special rates), will be issuable with effect from the date of arrival.

5. An officer whose family is compelled on medical grounds, duly certified, to remain in an area from which evacuation is ordered by the War Office, may continue to receive the rate appropriate to that area, until the family is certified as fit to proceed to the reception area, and arrangements for the journey can be made. In the event of the family then declining to proceed to, or remain in, the official reception area, admissibility of the standard rates or special rates for the area in which the family remain will be governed by para. 6 (2) below, with effect from the date of the occurrence of the first opportunity for evacuation after the certificate of fitness has been given.

6. Voluntary moves of families—

- (1) An officer whose family moves voluntarily away from an area named in para. 2 above, whether to another area named therein or elsewhere, will receive the standard rate, or the special rate for the area to which the family proceeds, whichever is the lower with effect from the date of leaving the area.
- (2) An officer whose family, having been ordered to be evacuated under War Office instructions from an area and whose family—
 - (a) declines to proceed to, or remain in, the reception area to which families are evacuated ; or
 - (b) proceeds elsewhere, will receive the standard rates, or the special rates for the area in which the family remains, or to which it proceeds, whichever is the lower, with effect, in the case of (a) above, from the date on which the official evacuation is carried out, and in the case of (b) from the date of leaving the area.

7. Officers residing at overseas stations—

Except as provided in para. 3 above, a married officer in Categories A or C who,

- (i) receives an emergency commission, or
- (ii) belongs to the Regular Army Reserve of Officers, Supplementary Reserve or Territorial Army Reserve of Officers, and is called out for service, or
- (iii) who is restored to full pay from the half-pay list, while domiciled with his family in an area named in para. 2 above may, if he becomes entitled to family lodging allowance, receive it (subject to the usual conditions of admissibility), at the special rate for the area while his family remains therein, even though he may have been ordered away from the area. In the event of the family leaving the area in which it was domiciled, and proceeding elsewhere (other than to a reception area to which evacuation is ordered by the War Office) or having been ordered to be evacuated under War Office instructions, declines to proceed to, or remain in the reception area to which families are evacuated, the standard rates, or the special rates for the area in which it remains or to which it proceeds, whichever is the lower, will be admissible as in para. 6 (2) above.

Army Council's instructions to Part I

1. Payment of allowances under this Army Order will be made by the paymaster concerned to the officer's bankers, together with any other allowances to which the officer may be entitled, at the end of each month.

2. A married officer (as defined in para. 1 of Part I of the Schedule to this Army Order) will be required to render a claim for married allowances on A.F. O 1646 (of which a copy is appended) to the officer in charge, Army Pay Office (Officers' Accounts), Stockport Road, Manchester, 13, if he is serving in the U.K. or adjacent islands, or to the command paymaster of the command in which his unit is serving if he is serving elsewhere. A copy of A.F. O 1646 will be retained by the officer for his information and guidance.

In any special case where it is considered necessary, an officer may be called upon by the C.O. or by the paymaster to explain the nature and extent of the provision which he makes for his wife and/or any member of his family for whom allowances are claimed.

Where an officer's marriage certificate has not previously been forwarded to the paymaster for notation, it must accompany A.F. O 1646.

Where allowances for children are claimed by officers in Categories B and C, birth and, where applicable, adoption certificates must also be forwarded with A.F. O 1646.

The officer's birth certificate should accompany A.F. O 1646 in the case of a married officer in Category A, if the certificate has not previously been forwarded to a paymaster. Where an officer was in receipt of married allowances under the regulations in force before 11th September, 1939, the officer's birth certificate need not be forwarded.

3. The rendering of A.F. O 1646 will be recorded in Part II Orders (Officers) or, in the case of officers who are on field service, on A.Fs. W 3010 or W 3012, and the information will be repeated in the Part II Orders (A.F. O 1810A) issued by the 2nd Echelon; e.g. :—

Lieutenant J. Brown, A.F. O 1646 signed and forwarded to Paymaster..... (date).

Residing (or not residing) with family.

Lieutenant J. Smith, A.F. O 1646 signed and forwarded to Paymaster..... (date).

Over 30 years of age.

Residing (or not residing) with family.

Where practicable A.F. O 1646 will be forwarded with Part II Orders (Officers) or, in the case of officers who are on field service, with A.Fs. W 3010 or W 3012 for transmission to the paymaster.

4. (a) Subsequent to the rendering of A.F. O 1646, all changes in the situation of the officer and of any member of his family that may affect his entitlement to allowances must be reported immediately by the officer concerned to his C.O. Birth or adoption certificates will be submitted in all cases where an increase in allowances is claimed by an officer in Category B or C.

(b) A report must similarly be made immediately an officer ceases to make financial provision for the maintenance of his wife and/or any member of his family for whom allowances are in issue: also if any circumstance arises which disqualifies any person from continuing to be regarded as a member of his family. An officer will be personally responsible for immediately reporting any such circumstance to his C.O. (see also instructions on A.F. O 1646).

(c) C.Os. will ensure that all such casualties are published, without delay, in Part II Orders (Officers), A.F. W 3010 or W 3012. Casualties reported on A.F. W 3010 or W 3012 will be repeated by the 2nd Echelon in A.F. O 1810A.

5. Apart from the notification of changes in the class of accommodation occupied by, or allotted to, officers, which is always necessary, the following are examples, not necessarily exhaustive, of casualties which require immediate publication in Part II Orders (Officers), A.F. W 3010 or W 3012 :—

All married officers :

Daughter ceasing to be dependent on the officer.

Cessation of financial provision for wife and/or any member of the family.

Separation from family and reason, e.g., exigencies of the service (see definition in para. 5 of the Schedule to this Army Order) of private reasons.

Temporary duty—the situation of the officer and of his family as regards accommodation during such duty. (The officer's personal certificate regarding retention or otherwise of his lodgings at his permanent station should be forwarded where applicable).

Change of address of wife or nominee.

Married officers in Categories B and C, in addition to above particulars

Birth of child.

Statutory adoption of child.

Date of attaining 30 years of age (officers in Category B only).

6. Lodging, fuel and light allowances can only be issued under the authority of the officer i/c barracks, and a copy of the authority will be forwarded with the paymaster's copy of the Part II Orders (Officers) in which the casualty is published.

7. Officers who are widowers or divorced and who are eligible for married allowances under this Army Order must notify the paymaster on A.F. O 1646 of their nominee (see para. 11 of the Schedule to this Army Order). Any subsequent change in nominee will be notified by the officer to his C.O. in writing (and duly witnessed) for publication in Part II Orders (Officers), A.F. W 3010 or W 3012. The officer's notification will be attached to the paymaster's copy of the relevant Part II Orders.

8. Application for special consideration, under para. 1 of the Schedule to this Army Order, for allowances in respect of sons, step-sons, or adopted sons over 18 years of age will be submitted, through the usual channels, to the War Office and not to the paymaster.

9. Paymasters will record on A.F. O 1856, in the space provided, particulars of marriage and dates on which officers attained, or attain, 30 years of age, in the case of officers in Categories A and B.

Particulars of any children who, on attaining the age limit for allowances, will necessitate either a reduction or cessation of allowances will be entered in red ink on A.F. O 1856 immediately below the marriage and age particulars thereon, and will indicate the dates such reduction or cessation will take effect.

10. A.F. O 1646 will be retained by the paymaster in the officer's personal file and will accompany A.F. O 1856 when transmitted to another paymaster. It will be amended from the information notified to the paymaster, in Part II Orders (Officers) A.F. O 1810A or from any other source, and will be suitably endorsed when verification of particulars has been effected.

11. Payment of supplemented allowances issuable under paras. 11 and 12 of the Schedule to this Army Order will be made by the paymaster concerned, monthly in advance, the first payment being made as soon as notification of the casualty is received, and to the end of the current month. In a case where an officer is serving overseas and the wife, or nominee, is not residing at the station, authority for payment will be forwarded to the paymaster concerned, or other paying authority, of the command or country in which the wife or nominee is residing. All payments and method of transmission will be recorded on A.F. O 1856.

In a case under para. 11 (d) of the Schedule to this Army Order, if the amount of the allowance due under paras. 11 (a) to (c), in respect of the period from the day following the date of the officer's death to the day preceding the date on which notification of his death is sent to his relatives is insufficient to meet the amount of pay and/or allowances over-issued to the officer's account beyond the date of his death, no payment will be made under paras. 11 (a) to (c) of the Schedule for such period, but the amount due will be credited to "Effects". If the amount due under paras. 11 (a) to (c) for the period is greater than the amount of pay and/or allowances over-issued to the officer's account beyond the date of his death an amount equal to the over-issue will be withheld and credited to "Effects", the balance being paid to the widow or nominee.

12. Where a reduction of allowances is necessary on account of the limitation imposed by paras. 6 (b), 13 (b) and 14 of the Schedule to this Army Order, family lodging allowance will be reduced by the appropriate amount.

13. An officer commissioned before 1st January, 1942, who desires to come into Category C will be required to make his election in writing to the paymaster issuing his allowances in respect of his family not later than 1st January, 1942. Officers commissioned before 1st January, 1942, who are unmarried on that date, and who marry thereafter will be regarded as in Category A or B (whichever is applicable) unless before 1st January, 1942, they elect to come into Category C.

Officers commissioned before 1st January, 1942, who elect to come into Category C will draw the new rates of family lodging allowance with effect from 1st September, 1941, the date of commission, or the date of marriage, whichever is the latest, irrespective of the date on which election is made.

14. Elections will be made in one of the following forms :—

APPENDIX

Army Form O 1646

CLAIM FOR ISSUE OF ALLOWANCES AT MARRIED RATES (OFFICERS ONLY)

(To be completed and forwarded, together with the requisite marriage and birth certificates, to the command paymaster.)

The claimant should carefully read the whole of this form, and should retain a copy.

1. The following is the definition of a married officer for the purpose of this claim :—

An officer will be regarded as a married officer (subject to the over-riding conditions below) only if :—

- (i) he is married and provides financially for the maintenance of his wife ; or
- (ii) being a widower or divorced, or a married officer who does not provide financially for the maintenance of his wife, he has a child or children for whose maintenance he provides financially.

When an officer is separated from his family by the exigencies of the service he will be regarded as providing financially for their maintenance only if his current expenditure on such provision is at least equal to the family lodging allowance in issue to him.

The expressions "a child or children" shall be held to cover :—

- (a) the officer's unmarried daughters, step-daughters, or daughters adopted under the provisions of the Adoption of Children Act, 1926, the Adoption of Children Act (Northern Ireland), 1929, or the Adoption of Children (Scotland) Act, 1930, dependent on him and normally residing with him or at school, and
- (b) his sons, step-sons or sons adopted under the provisions of the Acts referred to above, under 18 years of age. (Cases where sons, step-sons or adopted sons, over 18 years of age, suffer from mental or bodily infirmity may be submitted for special consideration).

It will not include :—

- (i) Children adopted, under the provisions of the Acts referred to above or otherwise, by a widower or a divorced officer without other children as defined above ;
- (ii) children of a divorced officer, unless the officer has been made their legal custodian, even though he may contribute to their maintenance ; and
- (iii) children for whose maintenance the officer does not provide financially.

Reference to an officer's "family" will be held to cover only his wife (if he provides financially for her maintenance) and such children as are recognized by the definition above.

 that I have carefully read the above definition of a " married officer " and the " NOTES " below and will immediately report any addition to my " family ", as defined therein, and any circumstance which disqualifies any of the above persons or any reported addition to my family from continuing to be regarded as a member of my family in accordance with the above definition.

NOTES

Instances of circumstances which may affect entitlement to be regarded as a member of an officer's family for the purposes referred to above are :—

Wife

Death of wife (state date when reporting).

Divorce (state date and nature of decree (nisi or absolute) when reporting).

Officer ceasing to provide financially for wife.

Death of child.

Divorce, where the decree does not award the officer the legal custody of a child or children.

Officer ceasing to provide financially for a child or children.

Daughter ceasing to be financially dependent on officer.

Daughter ceasing to be normally residing with officer or at school.

Birth of child.

Statutory adoption of child.

The above list is not necessarily comprehensive. In general, officers are expected to interpret the rules reasonably and conscientiously. If there is doubt as to whether any circumstance needs to be reported, it must be reported. Special attention is drawn to the fact that if an officer does not provide financially for a member or members of his family by reason of that member or those members having independent income or being in or taking up employment (including any form of national service, with the forces or otherwise) it is his duty to disclose the fact and to report any changes in the situation, as they occur.

4. Allowances payable after death of officer.

Certain allowances may be admissible for a specified period after the death or assumed death of an officer. Allowances so admissible will be payable to the officer's widow or, where an officer was a widower or divorced or did not provide financially for the maintenance of his wife, to such person or persons as the officer may nominate. An officer who is a widower or divorced or who does not provide financially for the maintenance of his wife should therefore insert below the name and address of his nominee.

Army Council's instructions to Part II

1. Immediately an officer stationed in one of the areas referred to in para. 2 of Part II of the Schedule to this Army Order becomes separated from his family in circumstances entitling him to receive family lodging allowances at the rates in para. 2(a) or family lodging allowance only at the rates in para. 2(b) the fact will be notified in Part II Orders (Officers), by the unit. The notification will state whether the family is one referred to in para. 3 (4) (a) or 3 (4) (b) or 4 of Part II of the Schedule to this Army Order. The paymaster will adjust allowances on receipt of this information.

2. A duplicate of the Part II Orders (Officers) will be sent to the headquarters of the command in which the family continues to reside and that headquarters will then become responsible for notifying the paymaster issuing the allowances immediately any change occurs in the situation of the family. In any case a telegraphic report will be made each month to the paymaster concerned, on the first day of the month showing the names of the officers whose families are at that date entitled to receive the special rates. Notification of the change of address of a family which leaves the area will always state the reason for the move, the destination to which the family proceeds, whether the move is officially ordered by the War Office, or whether it has been privately arranged, and the paymaster responsible for issuing the allowances. A copy of the notification will also be forwarded to the headquarters of the command to which the family proceeds and responsibility will thereafter devolve upon that headquarters for the rendering of subsequent telegraphic reports as required by this paragraph.

3. In any case of separation caused by duty moves of an officer occurring on or after 27th August, 1939, adjustment will be made as follows under the provisions of this Army Order.

- (1) Where the officer and his family, although separated, continue to live in the area, units or formations will render to the paymaster concerned a nominal roll showing the names of the officers concerned and the dates with effect from which the special rates are admissible.
- (2) Where the officer has left the area, but his family continue to reside therein, the information referred to in sub-para. (1) above will be supplied to the paymaster concerned by the officer commanding the rear party or unit to which the family is attached.
- (3) Where both the officer and his family have left the area claims will be submitted by the officer concerned through the usual channels to the headquarters of the area in respect of which he claims to be entitled to the special rates. After verification, the particulars of the claim will be forwarded by the headquarters to the paymaster concerned.

MESSAGE FROM HIS MAJESTY THE KING TO THE HOME GUARD

H.G.
230

The second year in the life of the Home Guard, A.O. 67 which ends to-day, has been one of marked and 1942 continuous progress. I have watched with satisfaction the growing efficiency of the Force in training, equipment and co-operation with the Regular Army, as well as the Civil Defence Services. Many of the original Volunteers have by now unavoidably left the Home Guard, and many have joined the Regular Forces. They leave behind them a great tradition of service and comradeship which will inspire the new recruits now enrolling for the defence of their country. Whatever the coming year may bring, I know that the Home Guard will offer the fiercest resistance to any enemy who may set foot on these shores, and that its members will spare no efforts to make themselves ever more ready for battle.

A.O. 67
continued

In order to mark my appreciation of the services given by the Home Guard with such devotion and perseverance, I have to-day assumed the appointment of Colonel-in-Chief of the Force; and I send my best wishes to all its members.

MESSAGE FROM HIS MAJESTY THE KING TO THE HOME GUARD

²⁰
H.G.
²³⁰ The second year in the life of the Home Guard, ^{A.O. 67} which ends to-day, has been one of marked and ¹⁹⁴² continuous progress. I have watched with satisfaction the growing efficiency of the Force in training, equipment and co-operation with the Regular Army, as well as the Civil Defence Services. Many of the original Volunteers have by now unavoidably left the Home Guard, and many have joined the Regular Forces. They leave behind them a great tradition of service and comradeship which will inspire the new recruits now enrolling for the defence of their country. Whatever the coming year may bring, I know that the Home Guard will offer the fiercest resistance to any enemy who may set foot on these shores, and that its members will spare no efforts to make themselves ever more ready for battle.

A.O. 67
continued

In order to mark my appreciation of the services given by the Home Guard with such devotion and perseverance, I have to-day assumed the appointment of Colonel-in-Chief of the Force; and I send my best wishes to all its members.

SPECIAL ARMY ORDER

THE WAR OFFICE,

15th June, 1942

Powers in Relation to Losses, etc., and Extra-Regulation Expenditure

A.O. 86

16
General
9274

1. The limit of powers in relation to losses, etc., have been modified and extended for the war period and the following table and notes will be observed instead of King's Regulations, 1940, Appendix IV, Table B, which will be in abeyance except as indicated in this order. The principles of King's Regulations, 1940, paragraphs 140-142 and 768-770 (as now current or as modified from time to time) will apply generally.

2. The amounts specified in the table represent the total or gross value of the lost cash, stores, etc., irrespective of any portion of the loss which may be made good by the person responsible.

3. Where Sections I and II of the table specify limits within which cases may be disposed of without prior reference to the command secretary or financial adviser the powers, except as in paragraph 4 below, must be exercised personally by the O. i/c administration or commander concerned. If such officer elects not to do this, cases may be dealt with on his behalf and under his responsibility by his administrative staff officers provided the prior concurrence of the command secretary or financial adviser is obtained to the write-off.

4. In those commands overseas where financial responsibility is operated under Field Service Regulations, and where there is a financial adviser the powers of the G.O.C. in C. of the command fall normally to be exercised on his behalf by his principal administrative staff officers. Delegation below them if desirable may, with the concurrence of the financial adviser be made on the lines of the table, Sections I and II, for commands at home.

H.M. Stationery Office, London. Price 1d. 57-9999

JUL 31 '42

A.O. 86 It will be laid down in Routine Orders (see Field Service Regulations, 1930, Vol. 1, Sec. 199(6)), that where losses are in excess of certain amounts, the cases must be referred to the financial adviser for his concurrence before the write-off is approved and that cases below the amounts fixed will be reported to him for information.

continued

5. Reports of cases under para. 3 (Home) dealt with without prior reference to the command secretary or financial adviser will be made by means of a schedule, numbered serially, furnished monthly not later than seven days after the end of the month, to the command secretary or financial adviser of the command who may at his discretion call for the file on which any particular case was dealt with. The form of the monthly report is shown below :—

or Cdr.....(Division or Area)

			£ s. d.

Reports under paragraph 4 (Overseas) will similarly be made but may be in a form agreed with the financial adviser.

6. The G.Os.C. British Troops in Northern Ireland and Northern Ireland District and the G.O.C. London District may exercise the powers laid down in the table for G.O.C. in C. or Os. i/c administration of army commands.

7. The term G.O.C. in C., G.O.C. or O.C. Troops in the heading of the table means the principal officer of the command. A.O. 86

8. The D.D.O.S. referred to in the footnote to King's Regulations, 1940, paragraph 140(a) as having powers of an officer i/c administration (Command) in relation to Central Ordnance Depots is the D.D.O.S. at the War Office.

9. Losses of and damage to W.D. stores and property arising from enemy action do not fall to be considered for formal write-off procedure. Accounts will be adjusted by certificate vouchers with appropriate explanation by the responsible officer unless it is deemed advisable to hold a court of inquiry, in which event a copy of the proceedings will support the certificate voucher.

10. A note on extra-regulation expenditure is included at the end of this Army Order. It modifies King's Regulations, 1940, Appendix IV C, by making provision for Corps districts and districts.

11. The provisions of this Army Order come into effect forthwith. Army Order 90 of 1941 is hereby cancelled.

(1) The powers in column (10) apply normally in commands abroad where a financial adviser and auditor is appointed. In E. Africa Command, they will be exercised with the concurrence of the Director of Military Audit and in W. Africa and Ceylon Commands with that of the command paymaster and financial adviser. Delegation and action without prior reference on the lines of and within the limits of columns 2-9 may, if desirable, be arranged by G.O.C. in C. with the concurrence of the financial adviser (or others named above).

(2) The term "stores" includes stores supplied by H.M. Stationery Office, with the exception of office machinery (typewriters, duplicators, adding machines, etc., but not components), authority for write-off of which can be given only by the War Office. Losses of, and damage to, works and buildings are also included.

Losses of, and damages to, clothing and equipment in possession of the soldier will be dealt with as laid down in War Clothing Regulations, 1941 and Equipment Regulations, Part I, subject to the financial powers laid down in this Table.

NOTES ON NUGATORY PAYMENTS.

continued

1. A nugatory payment represents an immediate and formal loss, i.e., the payment of money in return for which no service is rendered. It does not include constructive loss, i.e., uneconomical expenditure, where due service is rendered in return for the payment, although owing to change of policy, error of judgment, or otherwise, the service rendered does not have the utility intended. To assist in making this distinction clear, the following instances are given :—

Recorded as nugatory (1)	Not recorded as nugatory (2)
(a) Payment for stores not delivered owing to cancellation of contract.	(a) Payment for stores delivered but useless owing to change of pattern.
(b) Rent paid for premises after surrender on termination of occupation, but before termination of tenancy.	(b) Rent paid for rifle range retained in possession but closed as unsafe.
(c) Freight of men and stores not shipped.	(c) Payment for transport contractor for teams furnished as requisitioned but not used. (Payment for teams not furnished would be nugatory.)
(d) Payment to a contractor of compensation for loss on account of delay in handing over site.	(d) Payment to overhauling machinery which had lain unused owing to its having been ordered for delivery before foundations were ready.
(e) Extra payment to a contractor for supplies owing to reduction of quantities taken below those named in contract.	(e) Extra cost by purchase of homegrown instead of imported supplies, contrary to order that no preference should be given.

2. War Office sanction is required for all nugatory payments, except :—

- (a) Payments to contractors of sums not exceeding £40 for loss due to departure from the terms of a contract (see Section IV (i)).
- (b) Payments specially provided for in the terms of a contract. In these cases, however, reference to the War Office is desirable when the payment is exceptional in amount or character.

(For the period of the War this note supersedes King's Regulations, 1940, Appendix IV C.)

NOTE ON EXTRA-REGULATION EXPENDITURE

(See King's Regulations, 1940, para. 49)

1. Principal rule.—G.Os.C. in C. may sanction expenditure for objects of a military nature not covered by regulation within the limits of a grant to be notified annually by the War Office, provided that such expenditure :—

- (a) is a reasonable and proper charge against army funds ;
- (b) would be likely to receive the sanction of the Army Council, if referred ;
- (c) is not within the power of the G.O.C. in C. to sanction under ordinary regulations as a charge to the appropriate vote ;
- (d) does not involve a recurring charge ;
- (e) does not increase the regulated emoluments of any person.

The commander, corps district or district may also expend extra-regulation money. It will be within the discretion of the G.O.C. in C. of the command to decide whether a sub-allotment will be made to corps district or districts or whether the requirements of these districts will be met from the command allotment. If the latter is done it will be necessary before the liability is incurred to ascertain from the command paymaster whether the command allotment is able to meet it.

2. Primary purpose of the grants.—The primary purpose of the grants for extra-regulation expenditure is not to relax the close control which should properly be exercised over the expenditure of public money, but to save correspondence on matters clearly desirable from a military point of view, but of minor financial importance. The annual allotment will not be regarded as a grant the expenditure of which should be planned in advance, but is intended to meet cases of real necessity arising independently throughout the year.

3. Relations with the War Office.—(a) In the exercise of their extra-regulation powers, G.Os.C. in C. will be guided by the consideration whether the Army Council, if in full possession of the facts, would be likely to allow the expenditure proposed. It will be understood that nothing that has already been submitted to, and refused by, the War Office can be sanctioned under these powers.

A.O. 86

(b) To make application to the War Office for leave to sanction expenditure under extra-regulation powers is not consistent with the purpose for which they are granted.

4. Objects of a military nature.—(a) The conditions that the expenditure must be on objects of a military nature and a reasonable and proper charge against army funds will be strictly adhered to. Thus, the expenses of sending a band or team to perform or compete at an exhibition are inadmissible, because such expenditure is not within the purposes for which Parliament votes public money; and charges for printing, stationery, etc., are inadmissible because such charges are provided for, not in army estimates, but in the votes of the Stationery Office.

(b) When it is explicitly laid down in regulations that expenditure of a certain kind must not be borne by the public, extra-regulation powers will not be used to overrule the regulations.

5. Ordinary powers of expenditure.—When the proposed expenditure is already within the ordinary powers of the G.O.C. in C. under the regulations, use will be made of such ordinary powers and the expenditure will be charged to its appropriate vote and sub-head. Extra-regulation powers will be invoked only as an alternative to applying for War Office sanction, and no expenditure for which these powers are not necessarily invoked will be charged to Vote 11, Extra-Regulation Expenditure.

6. Expenditure not to involve a recurring charge.—A reasonable interpretation will be given to the condition that the expenditure must not involve a recurring charge. Thus, an installation of gas fittings, electric light, or baths involving additional recurring charges for gas, current or water is inadmissible, but the making of minor improvements in buildings involving small periodical charges for maintenance in future years would be permissible.

7. Personal emoluments.—The condition that expenditure must not be incurred for the specific purpose of increasing the regulated emoluments of any person is not intended to bar occasional payments to individuals in the public service, made in

A.O. 86 order to relieve them of expenditure actually incurred by them or to remunerate them for special work performed in addition to their ordinary duties.

8. Services to be complete.—Services approved under extra-regulation powers must be complete services, standing by themselves, and these powers will not be used to cover excesses on individual services carried out with other funds.

9. Other financial limits not to be exceeded.—Extra-regulation funds will not be employed as a means of exceeding the monetary limits assigned by regulation to other powers of G.Os.C. in C., nor will they be used to make good losses or to relieve claims arising out of theft, fraud or other financial irregularities, either suspected or proved.

10. Accounting, etc.—Extra-regulation expenditure is subject to the normal rules of public accounting and audit. Charges will be classified to Vote 11, Extra-Regulation Expenditure. The detail will be kept by the command paymaster and a statement forwarded to the War Office through the command secretary and financial adviser at the end of each financial year.

11. Issues in kind.—The grant is primarily for cash expenditure, but issues in kind may, in exceptional circumstances, be made under these extra-regulation powers. In such cases no debit to Vote 11 will be raised, but an equivalent sum will be saved on the grant, and an entry made in the annual statement.

12. Explanations.—In order to obviate unnecessary queries on the examination of accounts, the vouchers for charges against Vote 11, Extra-Regulation Expenditure, will contain brief explanations of any payments of an exceptional character and will show, when necessary, why the items are charged to that sub-head rather than to the ordinary votes and sub-heads appropriate to the services concerned.

WHEREAS a request has been made by the Government of the United States of America for the issue of general orders in pursuance of the powers conferred by section 1 (5) of the Visiting Forces (British Commonwealth) Act, 1933, as applied with adaptations and modifications by the United States of America (Visiting Forces) Order, 1942 (a) for the purpose of enabling the service courts and service authorities of the United States of America to exercise more effectively within the United Kingdom or on board any of His Majesty's ships or aircraft their jurisdiction in relation to members of the American forces ;

A.O. 142/1942

Grants of Additional Pay—Delegation of powers to Corps Districts and Districts.—1. It has been decided to allow General Officers Commanding Corps Districts and Districts in the United Kingdom, to exercise the powers at present delegated to General Officers Commanding-in-Chief, to approve additional pay under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Articles 889, 890 and 894 (as amended by Amendments No. 29, notified in Army Order 6 of 1941).

2. The following points are brought to notice in connexion with claims for additional pay under the Pay Warrant, 1940, Articles 889 and 894.

- (i) To comply with Article 889(a) the provost serjeant has to take charge of men from two or more units which do not belong to the same corps. Thus, the presence at the station, etc., of a small detachment of men from another corps, or the presence of two units of the same corps, e.g., two different regiments of the Royal Armoured Corps does not confer an entitlement to additional pay.
- (ii) The employment of a foot orderly with additional pay under Article 894 is not intended where the establishment provides for a duly qualified tradesman chiropodist.

A.O. 143/1942

Religion—Interview of recruits by Chaplains

In Army Order 116 of 1941 the Army Council affirmed their profound conviction of the value of religious inspiration as a source of spiritual and moral strength in the present conflict, and directed that, so far as the exigencies of the military situation permit, every facility should be given for public and private worship.

Experience has shown that many recruits who join the Army are out of touch with organized religion and know little of the part it plays in Army life. Officers Commanding all training units (including units of the Auxiliary Territorial Service) which receive intakes of recruits will accordingly provide facilities whereby a Chaplain may interview a recruit as soon as possible after joining unless the recruit states that he (or she) does not desire such an interview.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS We deem it expedient to provide for the emoluments of soldiers employed as divers ;

OUR WILL AND PLEASURE is that with effect from the date of this Our Warrant a soldier employed on diving duties shall receive pay and additional pay in accordance with the provisions laid down in Part I of the Schedule to this Our Warrant ;

OUR FURTHER WILL AND PLEASURE is that the amendment shown in Part II of the Schedule to this Our Warrant shall be made to Our Warrant for the Pay, Appointment, Promotion and Non-Effective Pay of Our Army, dated 29th February, 1940.

Given at Our Court at St. James's this 20th day of August, 1942, in the 6th year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

P. J. GRIGG.

SCHEDULE

PART I

1. In view of the intermittent nature of the employment the Army trade of diver (Group A) will be abolished. Soldiers employed on diving duties will be mustered in the Army trade at which they are normally employed and will receive the rate of pay appropriate to that trade together with additional pay as provided in paras. 2 and 3 below in respect of their diving duties.

2. A soldier qualified as a diver according to the standards laid down from time to time by the Army Council shall be eligible for additional pay at the rate of 3*d.* a day under the general conditions laid down in the Schedule to Army Order 215 of 1941 and the Pay Warrant, 1940, Article 863, so long as he remains available and fit for diving duties.

3. Whilst actually employed in diving duties a soldier will also be eligible for additional pay at the following rates :—

Depth	Time under Water
	First 30		Second 30		Each subsequent minutes		minutes		30 minutes
	s.	d.	s.	d.	s.	d.
0 to 6 fathoms..	2	6	1	6	1	0
6 to 12 fathoms..	2	9	1	9	1	6
12 to 20 fathoms..	3	0	2	0	2	0

A soldier employed as diver's attendant will be eligible for additional pay at the rate of 6*d.* for each hour, or part of an hour, during which diving is actually in progress.

Additional pay under this paragraph may be issued concurrently with the additional pay referred to in para. 2.

4. Soldiers ceasing to be mustered as divers (Group A) in consequence of the amendment shown in Part II of the Schedule may be allowed to retain the rate of pay of which they are in receipt at the date of this Warrant under the conditions shown in the Regulations Governing the Issue of Tradesmen's Rates of Pay, 1939, para. 29, for a period of six months, or until they are re-mustered in another trade, whichever is the earlier. Whilst retaining the rate of pay of a diver (Group A), they will not be eligible for additional pay under paras. 2 and 3 above.

PART II

Pay Warrant, 1940—Amendments No. 74

Appendix IV.

Group A. Delete "Diver."*

Army Council's instructions to Part I of the Schedule.

1. With regard to the additional pay authorized in para. 2 of Part I of the schedule, Officers Commanding Port Construction and Repair Companies, R.E., and Port Maintenance Companies, R.E., will be responsible—

- (a) that the initial entitlement to additional pay is published in Part II or Part III Orders, as the case may be;
- (b) that cessation of entitlement is published similarly immediately the soldier is no longer available or fit for diving duties.

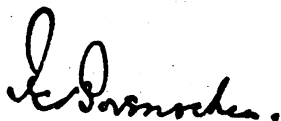

Entitlement to additional pay will be recorded as follows in the soldier's A.B. 64, Part II, on the Daily Rates of Pay folio, on the line immediately following the last rates of pay, etc., entered, and the entry authenticated by an officer:—

Additional pay, diving duty, amount in figures and words in the columns headed "Net Rate to be issued", date from which issuable, and signature.

When entitlement ceases for any reason the additional pay entry in A.B. 64, Part II, will be ruled through, the normal rates of pay, proficiency pay, etc., re-entered on the line immediately below, the date of cessation and the reason for the change recorded, the entries being authenticated by an officer.

2. Claims in respect of additional pay authorized in para. 3 of the schedule will be rendered in manuscript at the end of each account period to the regimental paymaster concerned. To enable the regimental paymaster to assess the amount due, each claim will show the various dates during the account period on which the soldier was actually employed in diving duties, the actual time spent under water, and the depth at which diving takes place. Claims will be certified correct by the Officer Commanding Port Construction and Repair Company, R.E., and Port Maintenance Companies, R.E., before they are rendered to the regimental paymaster. The regimental paymaster will credit the amount allowed to the soldier's pay account, and notify the Commanding Officer on A.F.O 1606. On receipt of A.F.O 1606 cash payment to the soldier may be increased accordingly, being recorded in A.B. 64, Part II, and acquittance rolls (A.F.N 1513C) in the normal manner.

Women officers appointed to commissions under the Women's Forces (Officers Commissions) Order, 1941, for employment with the Royal Army Medical Corps or in the Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Nursing Service or Reserve thereof or in the Territorial Army Nursing Service or Reserve thereof. Release from duty with liability to recall.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS WE deem it expedient to provide that women officers appointed to commissions under the Women's Forces (Officers Commissions) Order, 1941, for employment with Our Royal Army Medical Corps or in the Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Nursing Service or Reserve thereof, or in the Territorial Army Nursing Service or Reserve thereof, may be released from actual duty with Our Royal Army Medical Corps or army nursing services in order to return to civil life before the termination of the present emergency :

OUR WILL AND PLEASURE IS that an officer, as aforesaid, may, on the partial cessation, or conclusion, of hostilities, or at other times for reasons satisfactory to Our Army Council, and when deemed by them expedient, be released from actual duty in her respective Service and placed on an unemployed list with liability to return to employment with Our Royal Army Medical Corps or army nursing services, as the case may be, if and when required :

OUR FURTHER WILL AND PLEASURE IS that officers so released shall not, from the date on which they cease to perform duty, be entitled to pay or other emoluments, neither shall any period during which they are so released count towards increments of pay or promotion or for the purposes of any non-effective award, nor shall they be eligible for promotion during that period.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this 28th day of October, 1942, in the 6th year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

P. J. GRIGG.

Army Council's instructions to the above Warrant

1. The effect of the above Warrant made under the provisions of para. 7 of The Defence (Women's Forces) Regulation, 1941 (S.R. & O., No. 581 of 1941), is to provide during the continuance of the present emergency for the :—

- (a) release of an officer for reasons satisfactory to the Army Council, and when such a course is considered by them to be desirable and expedient ;
- (b) gradual release of officers before the date fixed for the statutory termination of the war as soon as the military situation admits, according to such instructions as may be approved to govern demobilization of members of the Forces.

A.O. 191/1942—contd.

2. The officer on such release will be removed from full pay and relegated to an unemployed list, on which service will not reckon for purposes of pay or any other emoluments, promotion, or any non-effective award.

3. With respect to para. 1(a), it is not practicable to specify all the reasons which may merit consideration under this head. Release will, as a rule, only be approved for reasons of a personal or compassionate nature, satisfactory to the Army Council, and will not be considered where the grant of leave with or without pay is available, and is considered adequate for the purpose. Officers released under (a) will hold themselves available to return immediately to full-time duty if and when so ordered, and will not leave the United Kingdom without the permission of the Army Council.

4. Officers released under para. 1(b) will remain liable to recall in the case of urgent military necessity before the termination of the war. Separate instructions will be issued on demobilization to govern cases of emigration and repatriation overseas.

5. Officers will not wear uniform whilst on the unemployed list except when otherwise specially authorized. An officer failing to obey the order recalling her to service would be liable to trial under the Army Act as applied to women members of the Armed Forces of the Crown for absence without leave.

Disablement Allowances to Members of the Home Guard

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS WE deem it expedient to revise and to improve the provision for awards to members of the Home Guard who suffer disablement attributable to their service :

OUR WILL AND PLEASURE IS that a member of the Home Guard who suffers disablement attributable to his service may, while he is incapacitated by such disablement and while he still remains a member of the Home Guard, be granted a disablement allowance at the rates and subject to the conditions set out in the Schedule attached to this Our Warrant, for the periods therein specified, and that this provision shall with effect from 2nd February, 1942, replace that made by Our Warrant of 15th July, 1940.*

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this 3rd day of October, 1942, in the 6th year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

P. J. GRIGG.

* Army Order 111 of 1940.

SCHEDULE

Disablement Allowances to Members of the Home Guard

DISABLEMENT ALLOWANCE DURING TOTAL INCAPACITY

1. A member of the Home Guard, of whatever rank, who is disabled by a wound, injury or disease attributable to his service, may be granted during periods of total incapacity a disablement allowance at the following rates, subject to the conditions set out below. The allowance shall not normally be admissible in respect of any period more than six months after the date on which the wound or injury was sustained, or on which the member was first incapacitated by the disease, but may, in exceptional circumstances, be granted for periods after the expiry of the six months. The allowance shall cease on the discharge of the member from the Home Guard.

2. The normal rate of disablement allowance shall be :—

	s.	d.
Basic rate	38	6 a week.
With additions as follows :—
For a wife	9	2 „
For the first child	7	1 „
For each other child	5	5 „
or, if no addition is payable for a wife :—
For the first child	9	2 a week.
For the second child	7	1 „
For each other child	5	5 „

For any period during which the member is in receipt of free hospital treatment as an in-patient a deduction shall be made from the disablement allowance otherwise admissible, as follows :—

If an addition is payable for a wife, a deduction of 7s. 6d. a week.

If no addition is payable for a wife, a deduction of 10s. 6d. a week. If the member is maintaining in his home a wholly dependent relative, this deduction may be waived, but so that the total payment shall not exceed the amount which would have been payable had the relative been a wife.

In calculating the amount of the allowance for periods of less than a week, a daily rate will be taken of one-seventh of the admissible weekly rate, and the amount due for the period assessed to the nearest penny.

3. An addition as above shall be admissible in respect of a wife, provided she is living with her husband (or, if separated from him, is substantially dependent on him) and was married to him before the date on which the wound or injury was sustained or on which he was first incapacitated by the disease. An addition at the rate provided for a wife may also, in special circumstances, be made in respect of an unmarried dependant living as a wife.

4. Additions for children may be made in respect of :—

- (a) The member's legitimate and legitimated children.
- (b) Children who were legally adopted by him before the date on which the wound or injury was sustained or on which he was first incapacitated by the disease.
- (c) His step-children and illegitimate children who are being regularly maintained by him, in whole or in part. An addition shall not be admissible in respect of a step-child unless the mother's marriage to the member took place before the date on which the wound or injury was sustained or on which he was first incapacitated by the disease.

5. Additions in respect of children shall not be payable for children who have attained the age of 16 years, except in the case of a child who—

- (a) is an apprentice or in an analogous position receiving not more than nominal wages, or is being educated at a university, technical or secondary school, or
- (b) is incapable of self-support by reason of infirmity, the infirmity having arisen before the child reached the age of 16 years, and has not yet attained the age of 21 years.

ADDITION TO DISABLEMENT ALLOWANCES FOR LOSS OF EARNINGS

6. Where a member of the Home Guard is incapacitated from following his employment as a result of his disability, and in consequence suffers a loss of wages greater than the rate of disablement allowance for which he is eligible under para. 2 above, he may be allowed for a limited period an addition to the disablement allowance to compensate him for such loss.

7. The additional payment will be the amount required to bring the disablement allowance payable under para. 2 up to the amount of the claimant's loss of earnings, or up to the sum of £3 14s. od. a week if less. His loss of earnings for this purpose shall be taken as the amount of his normal earnings at the beginning of his incapacity, less the value of any payment or benefit he may continue to receive from his employer, in respect of his employment, which is not in the nature of an advance refundable by him to the employer.

In the case of payments in respect of periods before 2nd March, 1942, the maximum amount to which disablement allowance may be increased shall be £3 10s. od. a week only.

8. The additional payment will be admissible during the period of his total incapacity from following his employment up to a normal maximum of eight weeks, but if the claimant is likely to return to Home Guard duty, the period may be extended to 13 weeks. If the claimant is still incapacitated at the end of the period for which loss of earnings addition is payable, disablement allowance will be continued at the normal rates for the balance of the period admissible under para. 1.

9. In special circumstances, an addition to disablement allowance may similarly be allowed to a member who, although not a wage earner, suffers a loss of earnings as a result of his incapacity.

DISABLEMENT ALLOWANCE DURING PARTIAL INCAPACITY

10. A member of the Home Guard who is incapacitated by a wound, injury or disease attributable to his service, but who is not discharged from the Home Guard, may be granted, in respect of any period for which an award under the foregoing paragraphs is inadmissible, disablement allowance at the rates and subject to the conditions laid down for disability awards to soldiers of the rank of private in the Royal Warrants governing the grant of pensions to members of the Military Forces disabled, etc., in consequence of the present war.*

* This refers to Royal Warrants received from the Ministry of Pensions and any amendments thereto.

A.O. 183/1942—continuedMEMBERS OF THE HOME GUARD UNDER 17 YEARS OF AGE

11. In the case of a member of the Home Guard who has not yet attained the age of 17, any award under paras. 2 and 10 above shall be at half of the normal rate only, and loss of earnings addition under paras. 6 to 9 will be admissible within a maximum payment including disablement allowance of £1 4s. od. a week only.

GENERAL

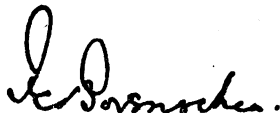

12. Disablement allowance, and the addition thereto in respect of loss of earnings, may be paid in such manner as Our Army Council may determine. Payment may be withheld, or made at a reduced rate only, if the circumstances are considered to be such as not to justify the full normal grant. A claim to disablement allowance may be disallowed if not preferred within a reasonable period following the beginning of the incapacity.

Disablement allowance shall be held liable to be stopped to meet any public claim there may be against the member concerned. In special circumstances and at the discretion of Our Army Council, disablement allowance may be paid in whole or in part to a person other than the member for his benefit or that of his family.

13. The grant of a disablement allowance will not confer any entitlement to a disability pension or other award in the event of disablement continuing after discharge from the Home Guard or in the event of death. The grant of any such further award shall be at the discretion of the Minister of Pensions and subject to the appropriate regulations.

14. The decision of Our Army Council on any matter affecting the admissibility, rate or issue of disablement allowance shall be final.

Increase of War Pay for Soldiers

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS in Our Warrant, dated 5th September, 1940,* We authorized a special temporary addition, known as War Pay, to the pay of warrant officers, non-commissioned officers and men of Our Army :

AND WHEREAS We deem it expedient to increase the rates of War Pay authorized by the afore-mentioned Warrant and by Our Warrant, dated 8th May, 1941 :†

OUR WILL AND PLEASURE IS that, with effect from 1st October, 1942, soldiers, except apprentice tradesmen and other enlisted boys, shall be eligible for War Pay at the rates and under the conditions laid down in Part I of the Schedule attached to this Our Warrant :

OUR FURTHER WILL AND PLEASURE IS that the increase in War Pay authorized by this Our Warrant shall not affect the rates of Qualifying Allotments in augmentation of Family Allowance or Special Dependants' Allowance, or of Contributory Allotment within the total of Ordinary Dependants' Allowance, and the scales of the said allotments in relation to pay shall, therefore, with effect from 1st October, 1942, be as laid down in Parts II and III, respectively, of the Schedule attached to this Our Warrant.

LASTLY, IT IS OUR WILL AND PLEASURE that Parts I, II and III of the Schedule attached to Our Warrant dated 5th September, 1940,* as amended by Our Warrants dated 8th July, 1941,‡ and 23rd March, 1942,§ shall be regarded as cancelled, with effect from 1st October, 1942.

‡ Army Order 34 of 1942.

‡ Army Order 110 of 1941.

SCHEDULE

PART I

War Pay

1. General conditions of issue, etc.

War Pay will be granted to all soldiers (except apprentice tradesmen and other enlisted boys) for whom pay is authorized by the Pay Warrant, 1940, Articles 829, 833, 838, 839, 955, 958, 965 and 994 to 1000, and to re-enlisted pensioners in receipt of special rates of pay authorized under the provisions of Article 859. The rate of War Pay applicable to such soldiers will be 1s. a day as from 1st October, 1942, instead of the rate of 6d. a day previously authorized.

2. War Pay will be issuable in addition to any extra pay, additional pay, proficiency pay and long service and good conduct pay admissible for the soldiers referred to in para. 1 above.

3. War Pay, including the increase authorized by this Warrant will be credited automatically to the accounts of all soldiers concerned by command or regimental paymasters. Company, etc., commanders will increase cash payments by 6d. a day from the first pay day after 1st October, 1942, except where compulsory stoppages, voluntary allotment, or restriction of cash issues, applied in accordance with Army Order 66 of 1941, preclude such issue in whole or in part.

4. Except as provided in para. 5 below, the grant, continuance, forfeiture and resumption of War Pay will be governed by the same conditions as are applicable to ordinary pay.

5. Allotments of Pay

It is not the intention that any part of War Pay shall be payable by a soldier as qualifying allotment issuable in augmentation of Family Allowance or Special Dependants' Allowance, or as contributory allotment within the total of Ordinary Dependants' Allowance.

In the revised tables of such allotments published in Parts II and III, respectively, of this Schedule, the gross daily rates of pay governing the various rates of allotments have, for administrative convenience only, been increased and now include 1s. 0d. a day on account of War Pay.

Voluntary allotments of War Pay may, however, be made by a soldier under the same conditions as apply to pay.

6. Compulsory stoppages

For the purpose of assessment of compulsory stoppages under Sections 138(8) and 145 of the Army Act, however, War Pay will be regarded as "pay" for the purposes of the footnote in the Pay Warrant, 1940, Appx. V, page 411. The increase in War Pay authorized by this Warrant will, to that extent, increase the maximum stoppages permissible from the soldier's pay.

PART II

Qualifying Allotment in Augmentation of Family Allowance or Special Dependants' Allowance

For the period of the present hostilities the provisions of the Pay Warrant, 1940, Articles 949 to 951, were suspended with effect from 31st August, 1940. The following provisions will be substituted with effect from 1st October, 1942 :—

1.* When family allowance is payable to the wife or special dependant living with the soldier as his wife, a qualifying allotment shall be deducted from the soldier's pay† at the following daily rates and issued in augmentation of the allowance :—

	s.	d.
Warrant officers, Classes I and II	4	0
Warrant officers, Class III ; serjeants, and non-commissioned officers of higher rank than serjeant	3	0
Soldiers below the rank of serjeant whose daily rate of pay is more than 4s. 0d.	2	0
Soldiers below the rank of serjeant whose daily rate of pay is 4s. 0d.	1	9
Soldiers below the rank of serjeant whose daily rate of pay is more than 3s. 6d., but is less than 4s. 0d.	1	6
Soldiers below the rank of serjeant whose daily rate of pay is 3s. 6d.	1	3
Soldiers below the rank of serjeant whose daily rate of pay is not less than 3s. 0d., but is less than 3s. 6d.	1	0

The above scale will be subject to the provision that in no circumstances shall any future increase of pay involve an increase of allotment larger than the increase of pay. This will be effected by limiting the increase of allotment to a sum equal to the increase in pay, even if the result is an intermediate rate of allotment not provided by the above scale. In such case the intermediate rate of allotment will be raised to the standard rate, as further increases in pay make it possible.

(11973)

† Where family allowance is not issuable in respect of the soldier's wife or the soldier is a widower and the allowance is issuable to a guardian or guardians in respect of a child or children, an allotment at a rate not exceeding the daily rate appropriate to the soldier's rank or rate of pay as specified above shall be deducted from the soldier's pay and issued to the guardian or guardians in augmentation of the allowance.

2. Paragraph 1 shall not apply in the case of :—

Soldiers of the Royal Malta Artillery.

Soldiers of the Maltese Section, Fortress Company, Royal Engineers, Malta.

Soldiers of the King's Own Malta Regiment.

Maltese soldiers serving in British units.

Other soldiers to whom this paragraph may hereinafter be extended by our Army Council.

When a soldier of one of the units specified in this paragraph is eligible for family allowance, a qualifying allotment at the rates set forth below shall be deducted from his pay† and issued to the family in augmentation of the family allowance.

Such stoppages shall be made for every day for which family allowance is drawn.

Rank	Allotment in respect of wife ^{and} or children
Warrant officers, Classes I and II	s. d. 2 0 a day
Serjeants and non-commissioned officers of higher rank than serjeant ...	1 6 "
Soldiers below the rank of serjeant, whose daily rate of pay is more than 2s. 6d.	1 0 "
Soldiers below the rank of serjeant whose daily rate of pay is 2s. 6d. ...	0 10½ "
Soldiers below the rank of serjeant whose daily rate of pay is less than 2s. 6d.	0 9 "

In the case of the Bermuda Militia Artillery and all other soldiers in receipt of the same rates of pay as for British units the stoppages shall be at the rates laid down in paragraph 1.

3.§ Should a soldier liable to the qualifying allotments specified in paragraph 1 forfeit his pay, the allotments which may not be recoverable for the days on which pay is so forfeited shall remain as a charge against him, and be recoverable from any pay, additional pay or other army emoluments to which he may afterwards become entitled.

† The first fivepence a day of all allotments of less than one shilling a day, and the first sixpence of allotments of one shilling a day or more will be paid from Army funds, the balance only of the daily rates will be paid by the soldier.

Army Council's instructions to Part II of the Schedule

1. * For the purposes of this paragraph, the expressions "pay" and "daily rate of pay" mean the pay, including increases (if any) after specified periods, to which the soldier during his colour service is entitled by reason of his rank, appointment, or trade classification, and proficiency and War Pay, but not additional emoluments that may be drawn casually.

† The paymaster will issue for one child, family allowance with half the allotment applicable to the soldier's rank and rate of pay under the scale laid down in para. 1; for two children family allowance with three-fourths of that allotment, and for more than two children family allowance with the full rate of allotment, except that in the case of two children where the family allowance together with three-fourths of the allotment does not meet the guardian's needs, the full allotment under para. 1 will be issued. When the family consists of more than one child and there is more than one guardian the children will rank equally for the purpose of dividing the allotment and family allowance.

The first sixpence a day under footnote † to Part II will be deducted from the soldier's qualifying allotment before the half or three-quarters rate referred to above is calculated. Where half or three-quarters of the allotment only is payable by the soldier, threepence or fivepence a day, respectively, will be issuable in addition from army funds.

3. § This regulation is made under Section 140 (1) of the Army Act.

Increase in rates of pay of Auxiliaries of the Auxiliary Territorial Service, and Members of Voluntary Aid Detachments; and amendments of the rules for the promotion of Second-Subalterns, Auxiliary Territorial Service to the rank of Subaltern.

1. Pay increases—Auxiliaries of the Auxiliary Territorial Service and Members of Voluntary Aid Detachments.

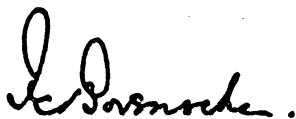

It has been decided that the rate of War Pay at present in issue to auxiliaries of the Auxiliary Territorial Service, and to members of Voluntary Aid Detachments who are paid at the rates laid down in War Regulations for V.A.Ds., 1941, shall be increased by 4d. a day with effect from and including 1st October, 1942.

2. Promotion by effluxion of time of Second-Subalterns of the Auxiliary Territorial Service.

It has been decided that with effect from 1st October, 1942, a second-subaltern will, after 6 months' commissioned service on full pay, be eligible for promotion to the war substantive rank of subaltern. Service as an auxiliary, irrespective of rank, will not be permitted to count towards the qualifying period of 6 months.

3. Regulations for the Auxiliary Territorial Service, 1941, and War Regulations for V.A.Ds., 1941, will be amended in due course.

Exchange of Christmas Greetings between the President of the United States of America and the Prime Minister.

The following messages which have been exchanged between the President of the United States of America and the Prime Minister are published for the information of all ranks :—

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT.

“ Struggling side by side against powerful foes thousands upon thousands of soldiers of those nations large and small which are united in defense of freedom and justice and human rights face the holiday season far from home, across oceans or continents, in fields of desert sand or winter snow, in jungles or forests, on warships or merchant vessels, on island ramparts from Iceland to the Solomons, in the Old and New Worlds.

“ They strive to the limit of their strength without regard for the clock or the calendar to hold the enemy in check and to push him back, they strike mighty blows and receive blows in return, they fight the good fight in order that they may win the victory which will bring to the world peace, freedom, and the advancement of human welfare.

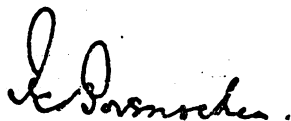

“ With a deep and abiding sense of gratitude the Congress of the United States has by a joint resolution asked me to transmit on behalf of the people of the United States to the armed forces and auxiliary services of our Allies on land, on sea and in the air, best wishes and greetings of the season to them and to their families, and a fervent hope and prayer for a speedy and complete victory and a lasting peace.

“ Accordingly I shall be grateful to you if you will convey to your armed forces and auxiliary services in the name of the Congress of the United States, in my own name and in the name of the people of the United States, the cordial wishes and greetings and the hope and prayer expressed in the joint resolution.”—FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.

REPLY BY THE PRIME MINISTER.

"I have received the stirring message sent by you, Mr. President, at this season from Congress and on behalf of the people of the United States and have arranged for its transmission to the Armed Forces of Great Britain on land and sea and in the air, in all parts of the Empire or in enemy territory. I know it would be their wish that I should cordially reciprocate these greetings. During the past year we have welcomed ever growing Forces from America in our ports and camps and on our airfields; in all theatres of operations men of America and men of Britain have fought side by side under each other's command, as circumstances required. Bonds of respect, comprehension and comradeship have been forged which will, I pray, far outlive this war, and be a lasting support in the labours of peace, when, after we have won the victory, we strive to build together a better and a happier world."
